

Delivery Driver (Brand Ambassador)

Role

Our delivery drivers are also called brand ambassadors, as they are the ones who get to see our clients face to face. They deliver the food on time, but more importantly, they do it with great service. As a brand ambassador, you will be responsible for:

- Possessing a valid driver's license with a clean record. Must provide an MVR report from the DMV
- Holding a Food Handler Certification. Having a food service sanitation license is a positive
- Interacting with clients, displaying a great attitude and giving exemplary customer service
- Lifting boxes and other equipment weighing up to 50 lbs.
- Packing and delivering multiple orders
- Setting up equipment
- Operating company vehicles safely
- Obeying the rules of the road
- Working on weekends when needed
- Having a smartphone with GPS
- Maintaining good grooming and personal hygiene
- Operating inside of Tasty Catering's core values

Most importantly, you should have a positive, upbeat attitude, be an excellent multitasker and be a great team player.
